HSC Strategic Plan Community Forum

Saturday, November 16, 2013 at 9:00 a.m. in Lawson Hall

Does the future of HSC matter to you? Do you have an opinion about what HSC's priorities should be over the next five to ten years? If you answered yes, HSC invites you to a Community Forum to provide input into our Strategic Plan.

An HSC Community Forum on Saturday, November 16, 2013 in Lawson Hall will provide an opportunity for parents, alumni, staff and students to come together, review the research and inputs that have contributed to the plan to date, and contribute ideas towards building HSC's Strategic Plan. Scheduled from 9:00 a.m. to Noon, this hands-on event will consist of facilitated small group sessions led by Susan Wright, of Susan G. Wright Management Consulting Inc.

Additional information about HSC's strategic planning process, as well as a PDF of the 2013 Parent Survey Summary of Findings, is posted on our Strategic Planning website for public review at www.hsc.on.ca/strategy.

This is your opportunity to have a direct impact on the development of the College's future. It is critically important that we hear all voices in our community so that we can envision together the future of Hillfield Strathallan College.

For those unable to attend, questions will be posted on the HSC website at: www.hsc.on.ca/strategy, with an opportunity to submit feedback electronically.

If you would like to attend, please RSVP to strategy@hsc.on.ca by Tuesday, November 12, 2013. Light refreshments will be served.

We look forward to a lively and interesting discussion about HSC. The College plays a significant role in the lives of so many. Please join us to help shape our future.

Regards,

Marc
